My Grandfather's Family lived in Skibbereen and emigrated to New Zealand during the "Troubles."

Historically, the four young brothers were low-land Scots, and attempted to defend their homes from Cromwell. ~~They~~ They were offered terms of "Join or Perish." They joined, and later invaded Ireland, where upon they were given land around Skibbereen.

Back to my Grandfather, Norman. At six years of age, his family emigrated to San Francisco, where they were rudely welcomed by the 1906 Earthquake. A Father of two children, Grandfather of four, Great-Grandfather of eight... and so far... A Great-Great Grandfather of six. He passed peacefully at 84 yrs old, in 1984.
