

Sean Hurley

Sean Hurley was born in Moulagow, Drinagh on the third of July 1887. He went to Drinagh National School. His father's name is John Daniel Hurley. Sean Hurley was the only Cork man who died or was executed for his participation in the Rising. He was buried in Glasnevin cemetery. I wrote about Sean Hurley because I live in the Drinagh area! I also went to the commemoration day for him in Drinagh. That is how I know about him.
