

- William O'Neill

Derrinagree

Drinoleague

Co. Cork

at a Coach House

This man in the picture is my neighbour's father's home place. His name is William O'Neill and he lived in a coach house. He is pictured with two horses that stayed there. This coach house was in Derrinagree, Drimoleague, Co. Cork. A coach house is a small outbuilding which was built to house horse-drawn carriages.

This picture was taken around 1913 my neighbour told me.