

Heritage project

Family

Dad

When my dad was a kid, his dad (my grandad) had a lot of land. It was quite a bit of land. It was used for farming. When Grandad died, the land was divided ^{between} my uncle and dad. My Grandma from dad's side was a nurse. (There are a long line of nurses in my family).

When Grandad was alive

my dad and aunt sold their bits of land

Mum

My grandad (Mum's dad) was a soldier in the navy. Well maybe not a soldier, he sent messages from sea on a warship when India fought against Pakistan. When mum was born in Dubai, my grandad was preaching the gospel there. He was arrested with some of his friends for preaching the good news. My grandma was a nurse as well. My mum is a nurse too. My grandma was born in 1947 the year of independence for India.