Story for The Revolution

My Grandad told me a story about a boy called Patrick O'Mahony who found a gun in Lashel woods, sometime after the 1916 rising. His friend Jackie Jennings was messing with the gun and shot himself in the chin and died, this was a tragic story in the area at the time.

I got this story from my Grandad Vincent O'Mahony Carrus, Clonakilty but he was originally from Coddreene, Leap. My name is Conor Doherty and my brothers name is Giorgi Surouind N.S. 5th + 6th
