

My name is Kate Whelton and my brothers did this project ^{with me} they are Euan & Daniel. I am from the town land of Camus, Castlefreke. We go to school in Rathbarry N. I am interviewing my grandparents Matt & Teresa Whelton from the same town land.

Story:

My Grandad's aunt died and they were having a wake (funeral) at her house in Camus. That evening when the Black and Tans saw a large gathering of people at the house, they thought that the people that were gathered were planning an ambush. So, they got their armour and planned ~~an~~ attack on the house. However one of the local neighbours passing by stopped them and informed them that funeral was taking place so they didn't come out.
