

On my Granmas side

My Great Grand-father John T. Buckley fought (in the) with the Old IRA. He was a freedom fighter. He was imprisoned in Ballincollig Barracks.

He was a member of the Toames Brigade. His friend Mossie Foley was shot in the Churchyard in Toames. There is a monument in Toames in his honour.

My Great grand Mother Ellen O Donoghue (nee Murphy) gave a drink to a survivor of the Kilmichael Ambush on the way to a safe house in ^{Bultimer's} ~~Waters~~ Kilmichael. My Great grandfather took the three bodies from the ambush site in a horse and cart.
