

My great gran uncle Gareth Barry was imprisoned in the Casbah. He was a republican but the rest of his family sided with the free-staters. He had a girlfriend from Castle town Kinna. While in prison he carved a castle town Kinna round ~~to~~<sup>tower</sup> into the ~~side~~ shinbone of a cow and ~~carved~~ carved a harp out of the collar bone of a ~~cow~~ cow when he got out he moved to Boston with his girl friend and never talked to his family again. His son returned the bones to the Michael Collins Museum in
