

My Great-Grandfather Joseph

In 1984 my father was harvesting corn on my great-grandfather's farm. It was late June at this time. My great-grandfather told ~~me~~ my father to go to the coconut farm and see if some coconuts have fallen. My grandfather warned him not to climb the tree. When my father got to the coconut farm he saw that no coconuts have fallen. He decided to climb the tree. When he was half way there he fell off the tree and couldn't get up. My great-grandfather came to see if he was alright. He saw that he was hurt and lifted him home. My great-grandfather was disappointed in my father after he said "Don't climb the tree."

My father told me this story

It took place in June 1984.

In Ijodo, Nigeria

Foyin Aba
5th Class
Abbeystream