

This is the story of my family during the war of Independence

by Gerddhine McCarthy

My Dad's Family (John McCarthy)

Nothing happened on my Dad's side of the family. Just normal people living normal everyday lives. They lived in Moreigh Dunmanway Co. Cork. By my research and questions my Dad had no information about any family members in the Drinagh H. Company.

My Mam's Family (Margaret McCarthy)

My Mam's Mom Margaret Kelleys Uncle Patrick Warren was a scout for the Kilmichael Ambuse, it means that he watched out for British Soldiers coming. He carried the Kilmichael boys to their final resting place. Patrick Warren later died in the summer of 1975.

My Mams Family

My Mam's Dad's Donal Kelly's Uncle Timothy Hourahan was shot by the black and tans in September 1920. He was minding his ~~own~~ <sup>own</sup> business when bang shot, his wife found him dead, then later died of a broken heart.

The Escape House

The window here is where they would climb out and then run up the hill.

Thank you for reading my family's story
