My History Project

interviewed my Granddad, Denis Murphy who was born on the 9th of February 1931. He told me that his father Patrick Murphy was an active soldier between the time 1916 - 1923. He stood by if he was wanted by the local leaders. Quite a lot of men would have done this as this was a time when becoming a soldier was really the most popular job. Patrick Murphy also received a medal. It is a War of Independence Service Medal. The medal was issued to those who took part in the War of Independence but were not deemed to have engaged in active service.

War of Independence Service Medal

Patrick Murphy also attended around 30 meetings. These meetings would update the soldiers on what was happening in the local area, the county and even what was happening in the rest of the country.

My Granddad's house has been standing for more than 115 years!!! His Grandparents (Patrick Murphy's mother and father) were the first people to live there. Today my Granddad lives in that very same house.

on the 1911 Census you can see that Kate Murphy was the youngest girl. She was born in 1899. The next Murphy girl to be born was born in 2006 and that was me.

Which means that I was the first girl born in my family in over 100 years!!!
