

Story 1 My great granuncle Paddy Coughlan. He lived in Ballieen. He was in the army. In the army he was a colonel. A colonel is the boss. He was involved in the 1916 Rising inside the GPO. He built his own house in 1950

Story 2 My great great grandad Charles M^c. He lived in Ardea. He was in prison in the workhouse which is know called Dunmanway hospital. The black and tans put him in prison. He was about to get excucuted but he escaped. He was in prison because he would not hand over a gun. They searched his house nearby everyday.

Story 3

My great great grandad was called Edward Dullea. He lived in Ballinacarriga.
One a dark night when the Column were returning from Kilmichael on their way to the far away camp of Granure. The Irish army made him march up the railway bridge at manch and also the bandon river bridge. They made him walk over the bridges to make sure there were no taps about.

I got this from my Grandad Finbarr Dullea.
He is from Nedineagh