

History Project

Story 1 My Grand's 5th cousin Paddy Leamy from Upton owned a safe house in Ballymardle, Upton. Paddy was also part of the Irish Republican Army (IRA).

Story 2 My Mom's great uncles owned a coach building company. It was called Burke Brothers New Road, Bandon. A lot of the coaches were built for travellers. They also made horse-drawn carriages. Nowadays the coaches are used for fortune tellers and for show.

By: Kayla Muleahy Scil Noomh Seosamh 5th Class
Told by: Thomas Carriffe
Watergate Street
Bandon
Co. Cork

