

The

Irish Revolution Stories

The Lyre Company Volunteers

On Easter Sunday morning, 1916 19 members of the Lyre Company Volunteers marched from Lyre to Inchigeelagh. They had one horse and cart rode by Jim Walsh from Knockea. There was a few on bicycles and the rest walked. They left at 5am from Lyre and stoppen in Dunmanway on their way. Dunmanway Volunteers joined them on their journey to Inchigeelagh where they were expecting to recieve about 20,000 rifles and ammunition. The Volunteers arrived in Inchigeelagh around 3pm but were told that the British Navy had arrected the ship (called the Aud) of the coast of Kerry and the amms were not coming in. It was the early ~~late~~ ~~outs~~ of Monday morning before they got back to Lyre. On the

The End

By Matthew Buttimen

The monument that was put in honour of the 19 people who marched to Inchigeelagh from that spot. It was put up in ^{April} 2016 exactly a 160 years since they marched. It lists all the names and addresses of all the men.