

Locally there was many ambushes involving the British and the Irish Republicans. The biggest ambushes were Crossbarry and Kilmichael. In Crossbarry one of the Irish leaders was Tom Kallinen and Charlie Hurley was one of the men that was shot dead. And the safe house was Paddy O'Leary's Bellnose.

The Kilmichael ambushes was a fierce engagement and three Irish men were shot. Liam Deasy was the youngest volunteer and only 16 years off age. He was born in Kilmuckisimon Key. The safe house was used after the ambush. Was Lynch's at Granwe.

Meabh o mahony

5th class

Scoil Naomh Seosamh, Laragh, Bandon.

Bernad o mahony

Innashannon, Farnahoe.