My Story by: amy ☺

My Name is Amy Barry, I am a fourth class student in Scoil Eoin *Iris Eoráin. My Dad's Granddad lived in *Rosscarbery. His name was Pat Barry. He used to bring milk in a churn to the creamery on a horse and cart. He got oats for the horse at the creamery as well as well. They had no weighing scales because of the war, so the man in the creamery knew *exactly how much the oats weighed, by lifting it over his shoulders. He did not need the weighing scales.
