

The Castle view mills

History Project!

by

Andrew McCarthy

and Flor McCarthy

I am writing about a man who worked with my granddad's father's Dad who died in the Crookanny ambush.

I am also writing about the eastview mills.

Comm: Dalg is on the bottom right and my granddad's father is on the top right.

Con Daly

He worked in Eastview the mills.

He was shot in the Crossbarry ambush in 1921 on the nineteenth of March. R.I.P

This is in the Eastview mills as the men worked as searchers

In this book he was included in the chapter "Heroic dead of West Cork."

The Castleview Mills

There was a safehouse in the mills at that time which kept local volunteers. Including Con Daly. My Granduncle was the last person to live there.

There was a field above the mill which kept guns and ammunition.
