

The person who im doing the project on is my great grandaunt Ellen Daly.She was my grandfathers aunt on my mothers side.She was born in 1920 in Clashanure Ovens.She lived there with her mother known as Nana Daly and her Father.She had six sisters and no brothers.she went to Farran school and used to go to dances in Kilcrea Castle.She later married a man called Harry Granger and they moved to Garryhesta in Ovens.They had one son Leslie he was a carpenter.She drove a white Ford Escort with red leather seats.They had a small holding with cows,pot belly pigs,sheep,goats,chickens and ducks.At christmas she rared turkeys.She had a yorkshire terrier called Tiny when he died she replaced him with a Saint Bernard and also called him Tiny.She worked as a house wife and farmer.She also looked after the neighbours children for many years.They were the Crowley Family in Ovens.She died in 2013 at the age nintey three.We all have fun memories of her.

This was her with her husband.

2007

Ellen Daly
Clashanure
Ovens

Pic - Ballinacollig
2007

This was her on my Mom and Dad's wedding day.
1998

Ellen Daly
Clashanure
Ovens

Pic - Gaggin
Bannon
1998

This was Ellen holding my Mom.

1974

Ellen Daly
Clashanure
Ovens
Co Cork

Pic - Clashanure
Ovens

1974

The information for this story was collected by

LISA HOLLAND
Mount Pleasant
Bandon
Co Cork

Tionscarnán le: Donal Ó hAoláin

Yalecoil Dhroichead na Bannan