

The Southern Star

50,000 READERS EVERY WEEK - WEST CORK'S LARGEST CIRCULATING WEEKLY

The Southern Star Newspaper!

The Southern Star was founded by John and Florence O'Sullivan in 1819. It claims to be the most censored newspaper during the war of Independence under the order of General Maxwell. After it was obtained by Sinn Féin the star put an emphasis of who was who of Cork republicans Michael Collins, Peadar O'Houlihan, TD Sean Hayes, Tadgh Barry became shareholders. It was shut down four more times by the Defence of Realm Act (D.O.R.A) 1918, 1919 and 1920.

The Glen office was raided by armed men in 1918 and considerable damage was done. In 1919 D.O.R.A was relaxed and machinery was dumped in the Glen River by the Irish Republican Army (IRA).
