

The HMS Renown

The HMS Renown was first ordered in the year 1914 and finished in 1916. It built in Glasgow. It was used for the remaining fleet of world War 1. In 1920-21 following its refit she carried the prince of Wales on a voyage to Australia and America. My grand-uncle served as a petty officer on the boat in world war 2.

Written By:

Ellen O'Donovan