

The shooting in Lyre bar

The Shooting in Lyre bar

There was a man named Larry Cunningham. During the civil war he went to see his family in Lyre. He was afraid the Black and Tan's would follow him so he slept in a bog. One night he went to the pub The Black and Tan's followed him. They shot him through the window. They were about half a kilometer away.

History Project

Name: Gavin Nyhan

I got my story from: Con McCarthy

Their address: Ahiohill, Enniskeneane, Co. Cork.

School: Kilcolman N.S.