

My name is Kathlyn McCarthy and I am twelve years old. My story is set in the 1960's in Touraheen, Drimoleague, Co. Cork, on my Grandad's farm. My Grandad's name is Timothy McCarthy he (is) has lived in Touraheen for all his life. This story was told to me by my Grandad.

One day my Grandad heard a knock on the door, it was a man called (O') Terance O'Reilly from Baltimore near (~~Skibbereen~~) Skibbereen. He asked if he could work for my Grandad on the farm and live in the stall. My Grandad allowed him too. He had a sheepdog that lived with him. Everyday Terance and his dog got fed, everyday Terance worked on the farm also. He lived there for over four years.

When he died he was buried in Drimoleague's new cem Cemetery, his dog died two days later. My Grandad doesn't know if he had any farm family.
