James Finn and May Ke The love birds

James Finn was a civil servant that lived with his mother in Dublin. May Ke was a country girl in West Meath. James Finn and May had a age gap of 20 years and often wrote letters to each other. James met May by ~~just~~ visiting his cousin in the neighborhood. James always had an eye for May. So he waited until she ~~was~~ was the right age and married her. James was in liberty so during ~~the~~ June to June to May they wrote a collection of ~~at~~ 100 letters. After Easter rising all the ~~art~~ civil ~~servant~~ servants were to render an account for their Easter holidays. The couple did not ~~worry~~ trouble about it because they ~~was~~ were not very rebellious people. James took they were going to have their ~~wedding~~ wedding. James took care of the ring while May took care of her dress and they had a wonderful marriage for all ~~the~~ 5½ years they had 7 children. And May the reason that they only had a marriage for that long is that James died from a Spanish flu. Mary had to sell all the wonderful things her husband bought for him to sustain their family AND THAT IS WHERE OUR STORY ENDS
