Yay

My Great Grand Parents.

My Great Grand Fathers Name was

Dennis Sullivan. My Great Grandmother

Name was Hannah Collins. They lived in Malagullane, Caheragh, West Cork. They were hard working people. They had five children. Like most families it was hard to keep food on the table in the times of the Famine and afterwards part of the British army called the "Black and Tans" were around Malagullane as it was near the train from Cork city. They would storm in to my Grandparents home and demand food to be cooked for them or there would be trouble to keep their children safe. She gave them food. It was a hard time to live.

my family tree!
