Tom white And the GAA

Tom white was my great grandfather and he played as a goalie in 1897 county final in the slaneys. And it was the first time the slaneys won the county final. After on in life he had a son called William, who is my fathers, father. The GAA would have been heavily involved in the war of Independence because of the events of Bloody Sunday. Indeed alot of players and even high ranking people would have been involved in the I.R.B

World war 2 pilot

My great great gran uncle was in world war 2 in the british army and was a pilot in the R.A.F and his name was Richard Kingston. He was shot down over France in 1942. He flew for 207 Squadron in stirling plane, no record of the body if it was recovered or not.
